Republicanism/ Republicanism: Una Teoría Sobre La Libertad Y El Gobierno/ a Theory of Freedom and Government (Paidos Estado Y Sociedad / State and Society) (Spanish Edition) Philip Pettit

Este libro supone la primera vez en que se presenta, de una manera completa y global, una alternativa a las teorías liberales y comunitaristas que han dominado la filosofía política de los últimos años. Y Philip Pettit lo hace mediante una exposición, tan elocuente como convincente, que a su vez se abre con una exploración de la concepción republicana tradicional de la libertad como no-dominación, contrastándola con las visiones negativa y positiva de la libertad. La primera parte esboza el ascenso y declive de dicha concepción, muestra sus ventajas y defiende la necesidad de seguir considerándola como un ideal político esencial. La segunda atiende las implicaciones que podría tener el ideal en cuestión para la toma de decisiones públicas, para el diseño constitucional y democrático, para el control regulativo del Estado y para la relación entre este último y la sociedad civil. Especialmente notables resultan, en este sentido, tanto el nuevo concepto de democracia aquí expuesto, según el cual el Estado debe exponer continuamente sus decisiones al debate ciudadano, como la consiguiente visión de las relaciones entre el Estado y una sociedad civil basada en las virtudes cívicas y la confianza mutua. Una obra robusta e incisiva, pues, que no sólo ofrece una panorámica global de las diversas fuentes intelectuales del republicanismo, sino que también proporciona una perspectiva nueva sobre campos de investigación afines, como la historia de las ideas, la teoría del derecho y la criminología. Philip Pettit es profesor de Teoría Social y Política en la Research School of Social Sciences de la Australian National University, en Canberra, y de Filosofía en la Columbia University de Nueva York. Entre sus libros figuran The Common Mind: An Essay on Psychology, Society and Politics (1993) y Not Just Deserts: A Republican Theory of Criminal Justice (1990, con John Braithwaite).
