Anvil of Stars (Forge of God Book 2) Greg Bear

A Ship of the Law travels the infinite enormity of space, carrying eighty-two young people: fighters, strategists, scientists, the children. They work with sophisticated non-human technologies that need new thinking to comprehend them. They are cut off forever from the people they left behind. Denied information, they live within a complex system that is both obedient and beyond their control. They are frightened. And they are making war against entities whose technologies are so advanced, so vast, as to dwarf them, against something whose psychology is ultimately, unknowably alien.

Mary Gonzalez:

As a student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's soul or real their hobby. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring and also can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this Anvil of Stars (Forge of God Book 2) can make you truly feel more interested to read.
