Zeke Powers should've come with a warning label. He was hot. He was sexy. And he was a bad boy through and through. The things he said to me had me blushing and my toes curling. But he was someone I totally didn't need walking into my life, screwing up the plans I'd made and turning my world upside down. Although I'd been living a no-frills, no-fun existence, I felt it was necessary to get where I was going. Keep your eye on the prize and all that. But Zeke was determined to prove to me that what I desired most—him—was just what I needed.
