Not illustrated. 1916 Excerpt: ...you have probably learned a lesson that, although costly, may induce you to help the authorities in their endeavor to save careless ones from the result of their refusal to maintain at all times cleanliness in and about their property. Get awake to your own interests and work for Fire Prevention and the reduction in the per capita that you are now compelled to pay for other people's losses, for you do help pay these losses as increased premium rates, which the companies deem necessary where conditions are of an extra hazardous nature, and the rate is added to every commodity you use, no matter what it may be. Number 24. A CHAT WITH YOU. Mr. Householder. In the month of March, 1914, there were reported to the Department 1,404 fires and in the same month in 1915--802 fires, a reduction of 602, which shows conclusively that the public is awakening to their own interest and giving heed to the necessity of using more care in the disposition of waste, which is responsible for the greatest number of avoidable fires. Of the 802 fires reported in March, 522 or 65% were in dwellings, directly chargeable to carelessness, and is a reflection on the housekeeper and can and should be remedied by paying more attention to the removal and destruction of rubbish and waste from the inside and around homes and other buildings. Don't complain of your neighbor's neglect, but look around and see if your own premises are in a condition as to be free from criticism. In thirty States and in many towns throughout this State, a special day has been set apart as A CLEAN UP DAY. This means that an effort is being made in the right direction to reduce the fire waste and bring about a condition that will result in a decided lowering of the fire insurance rates.
