At The End of Masculine Time: A Case for Cultural Resistance James LaFond

At The End of Masculine Time makes the case that modern liberal society is a Faustian matrix whereby the collective and individual souls of men are incinerated on The Altar of what the author names 'the God of Things'. This manifesto makes the case against the ever pervasive violence of civilization in favor of the serenity of barbarity. This counter culture meditation on being a man in an emasculated society names the cause, enumerates the symptoms, and offers a cure for what ails men. Includes the essays: Echoes of Men What Smokes on God's Altar Superman and the Plight of Orks Let the Weak Fall In The Onion Field of the Soul and, Where Life is Scarce
