A Self-Examination of Biblical Obedience: The ABCs of Understanding Scripture Kay Anderson

Short Description: "A Self-Examination of Biblical Obedience, The ABCs of Understanding Scripture," by Kay Anderson is a great topical Bible study. It includes a comprehensive collection of over 1,300 Bible passages that have been broken down into simple commands that are easy to understand. The motivational workbook is organized and the topics are from A to Z.

Each chapter begins with study notes that outline who, what, when, where, and how to obey the direct commands contained within the selected verses. The emphasis is on what you are to obey and why. The Scriptures are cited with references from A to Z about each of the topical chapters. The highlight of each chapter is a test that allows for personal assessment of which commands you are already obeying and which ones you need to obey. Journal pages encourage personal improvement plans towards becoming more obedient to God's Word.

This book is great for anyone especially those who have ever felt overwhelmed by the Bible's size and complexity. The organized lists help you find the scriptural texts that speak to your specific concerns. The cross-reference index leads you to discover cliché's or favorite passages that you may not have known originated in the Bible.

It will truly be a blessing to you.
