A record of letters, maps, and other documents associated with Christopher Columbus's life and career in exploration. Reproductions of historical engravings throughout. Lima de Freitas' illustrations consist of 5 drawings, appearing as double-page spreads, plus a medallion of the head of Columbus on the title page, all of which were printed in black & 2 colors. In addition, he has fashioned some 65 black-and-white drawings. The illustrations are reminiscent of the woodcuts of Columbus' own day! The book also has several gorgeous maps including one reproduced in color for the end papers. The binding is sewn, not glued, so this book will accommodate a lifetime of being read over & over again without showing signs of wear or deterioration
